

Shoes That Are Different

That's Our Motto.

$5

One of the many good styles this spring is the White Buck Colonial with the large tongue and covered sole. Weltd sole with leather Cuban Heel.

Same in Russia Tan.

This exclusive style can only be found at the

Walk-Over Boot Shop

214 San Antonio St.

Dances

The "Kappa Kappa" dancing club has been reorganized and beginning tonight will give a dance every two weeks at the home of the different girl members of the club. The dance tonight will be held at the home of Miss Birdie Hawkins, 601 Nevada street. The members of the reorganized club are: Wayne Chenoweth, Wendell Kuhn, Robert Hoover, Bayler Foster, Nelson Rice, Ernest Myles, Adkins Bowden, Switzer Turner, Frank Ross and Bert Farmer; Misses Buella Brown, Mayme Clark, Sarah Bridges, Beatrice Pateman, Edith Perrenot, Nell Haugman, Stella Brick, Camilla Kibler, Margaret Bryan and Birdie Hawkins.

El Pasoans Returning

Mrs. James L. Marr returned Wednesday evening from Mexico City by way of El Paso. Mrs. Porter Dent and little daughter have returned home to 325 Prospect. Sale on All Hat Goods. Three-dollar switches for 95c; $5 switches at $3. All colors to choose from. Princess Beauty Shop, under Hinson's jewelry store.

Cards

The Montezuma club was entertained Tuesday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Paul Liso. The house was decorated in pink carnations. The women's club prize was won by Mrs. J. F. Eyster and the men's by Dr. Geo. Brunner. The women's guest prize was won by Mrs. J. E. Bowen, and the men's by John H. Grant. Refreshments in two courses were served after the game. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Eyster, Dr. Geo. Brunner, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Du Ross, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Voltersten, judge and Mrs. J. E. Bowen, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Booth, Mr. and Mrs. James Crawford, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Grant, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Neely, Mrs. A. Fullan, Miss Rebecca Goldstein, W. Eyster.

Tuesday afternoon Mrs. D. V. Pennessy, of 1210 Nevada street, was hostess at a delightful bridge party, given to her friends from Parral, Mexico. After the game, delicious refreshments were served. Two prizes were awarded. The first prize, a silver picture frame containing a picture, was won by Mrs. James Wilding. The consolation prize, a large bouquet of violets, fell to Mrs. D. H. Bradley. The guests from Parral were: Mesdames H. H. Utley, W. W. Stewart, H. M. Spennell, F. Doak, James Wilding, D. H. Bradley, Miss Lillie Watt.

Mrs. W. J. Ritz, of 1167 North Stanton street, was hostess Tuesday afternoon at a card party, in honor of Mrs. W. S. Nicholson's sister, Mrs. Benjamin, of Buffalo Gap, South Dakota.

Women's Organizations

At three o'clock on Wednesday afternoon, March 6, there will be a program given at the Woman's club rooms. A birthday luncheon will be given by the members of the Woman's club on Wednesday at 12 o'clock in the dining room of the Presbyterian church. At the program in the afternoon at the club rooms the wives and daughters of the cattlemen will be guests. The work on this program will all be original. There will be no business discussed beforehand.

The following is the program to be given: Piano, Mrs. W. C. Davis. Story, Mrs. Mary Elwell. Song, Mrs. T. W. Nealon. Influence of music in the home, Mrs. Stevens. Violin, Miss Rean. Poem, Mrs. Alice Thompson. Story, Mrs. T. W. Nealon. Song.

The East El Paso Thimble club was entertained Wednesday at the home of Mrs. J. A. Robertson. Dainty refreshments were served during the evening. The guests of the club were: Messrs. R. Millican, Kayhill, W. Hindin, J. W. Ross, Charles Geach and Mrs. Reed.

Dinners and Luncheons

Thursday, at one o'clock, Mrs. L. G. Votherspoon was hostess at a delightful luncheon, given in honor of Miss Gertrude Ellis and Miss Anna Grace Ellis, brides-elect of the spring. The table was beautiful in pink. In the center stood a large basket filled with pink roses and tied with bows of pink tulle. A center-piece and mats of shiny lace were lovely over linoleum, and silver candelabra holding pink candles with pink shades, gave a touch to the coloring. The place cards were hand painted in roses and the picture of a bride and groom. A delicious seven-course luncheon was served. Besides the guests of honor, the invited guests were: Mesdames Chabonne Adams, Walter E. Arnold, Chas. R. Loomis, Peyton J. Edwards, Julius Krakauer, W. R. Brown, R. C. Semple, Misses Ruth McCurdy, Frances Clark, Anne Lee Gaines, Wanda Rice.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Anderson entertained a few friends at luncheon, followed by a musical program and dancing, on Wednesday evening. Miss Fannie Mitchell sang several popular solos and C. Hard played violin solos. Both were greatly enjoyed. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Bennett, Mesdames J. H. Harshman, Kate Murray, T. C. Russell, M. D. Thomas, Mesdames C. L. Thomas, T. C. Bird.

Mr. and Mrs. N. G. Bucher, entertained Thursday night with an 11-course dinner at the Sheldon. Their guests were: Gus Heyman, Mrs. S. Cohn and Miss Amy Cohn, of San Francisco; Mr. and Mrs. Harris Waldhall, Mrs. Ferguson Doak and A. de La Renna. The table was decorated with pink and white carnations.

On Wednesday afternoon C. W. Bennett entertained Albert Taylor, of the Albert Taylor Stock company, at a five o'clock dinner at the residence of Mrs. J. P. MacFadyen. Mr. Taylor leaves El Paso at the close of next week's performance. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Michael, Mr. and Mrs. Sullivan, Mr. and Mrs. Stevens, Mrs. J. P. MacFadyen, Albert Taylor and C. W. Bennett.

Church Affairs

The business meeting of the Woman's Missionary society, of Trinity church will be held Tuesday afternoon at 2:15 in the church. Mrs. W. A. Traylor will conduct the devotional exercises, followed by reports of officers and committees.

About El Pasoans

Earl Brown, who has been ill for a few weeks, has returned to the San Jacinto school. Born to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Geometz, a boy, February 26.

Out Of Town Visitors

Miss E. M. Cowley is in El Paso from Kansas City, coming to attend the Cowley-Saterlee wedding.

Mrs. W. D. King came in Wednesday from Eagle Pass, where she has been the past two weeks. Mrs. King and Miss Gladis are here on account of the trouble in Torreon, Mex., their home.

Mrs. J. A. Tobias is a new arrival in the city from Danville, Ill. Mr. Tobias has been here since the first of the year and is with the Popular Dry Goods company.

Earl Dantrich left last week for his ranch near Tularosa.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Holloway, who have been visiting in El Paso, have returned to their home in Tularosa.

Mrs. Grace Booker, of Spokane, Wash., is expected Saturday. She will be the guest of Mrs. Fred Woodworth.

A. Wilson, sr., of Tularosa, is visiting in El Paso.

J. McKee has arrived from Chihuahua.

Miss Ruth Himmman, of Silver City, N. M., is the guest of Miss Nora Lawton, at her home on Union avenue.

James G. Brann, of San Antonio, is the guest of his brother, Charles A. Brann, of The Herald staff.

Mrs. Charles Felby, who has been visiting Mrs. E. A. Henning, of 1214 Boulevard, for the past month, left El Paso Thursday night. Mrs. Felby will go by way of New Orleans to New York from where she sails on March 17 for Vienna, Austria.

El Pasoans Away

Mrs. Lee Majors and baby leave Friday for Abilene, where they will visit about three weeks, after which they will go to Colorado, where they will make their home. Mr. Majors left today for Colorado.

Mrs. Bruce Seaton left Thursday for Merced, Ill., to be gone a month or more. Mrs. Seaton was called to Merced by her mother, whose home in that city was recently burned.

Mrs. H. E. Runkle left today to make her future home in California. Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Short and son, Edward, are in Los Angeles, Calif., called there on account of the death of Mr. Short's father.

School Notes

The grades taught by Miss Kate Adams and Miss Compton gave a candy sale at the Beall school Wednesday to buy pictures for the rooms.

Pretty and Easily Copied

BEAT IT

here quick, if you want a real bargain

195 Special

We have bunched about 250 pairs of WOMEN'S OXFORDS in all styles and leathers, which we will close out at $1.95 pair.

Values up to $3.50--All sizes

American Shoe Store

110 Mesa

Baking School and Lecture

ON DOMESTIC SCIENCE

WILL BE HELD AT

Springer's Furniture Store

Corner San Antonio and Broadway

Commencing Feb. 28th, and continuing several days.

These lectures will be conducted by Miss Barker, an exponent of the art of Baking as taught by Mrs. J. M. McKimzie Hill, of the widely-famed Boston Baking School, and will be illustrated with interesting Baking tests which are certain to interest and instruct you. Chairs will be placed so you can sit in comfort during these talks and illustrations. Classes begin promptly at 2 o'clock each afternoon. These lectures are free, there is no charge or obligation whatever. The well-known Calumet Baking Powder will be used for reasons which will be explained.

Representatives of the Calumet Baking Powder will call at your home and tell you of its great merits. Ask them to show you the book of "Reliable Recipes." It contains the finest collection of choice recipes ever compiled. Full sized cake given free each afternoon. All are invited—Come and bring all your friends.

druggist, beginning to shove out the cyanide, "but do you not know that when a female has the reforming mission in her system it is bound to break out, and that the wine guy lets her work it off on the public instead of himself. Women's clubs were invented by a merciful Providence for the salvation of husbands."

Deeply pondering these words, the man went away, and it was not long before he returned all Gussied up in the swell togs, and with a smile of contentment radiating his countenance, and laid many plunks before the druggist. "Take these," he said, "as a slight token of my gratitude, for you have saved my life. My wife is now the spellbinder in a get together organization of old palleys, and existence with me is a merry train. As soon as she found out that she could speak in public she quit lecturing me, because she felt that it was a shame to waste such oratory on an audience of one."

(Continued on Next Page.)

Willie Green Tries His Hand At Pole Vaulting

